

The Office - Stocktaking

(C0108)

A: Morning, Ed. The auditors arrive on Monday, and I want the stockroom immaculate before they get here.

B: I have been dreading this. Half the pallets are still unlabelled and the shutter is jammed.

A: Then get the labels printed today. Move the overflow into the annex before the audit.

B: And the damaged crates? We cannot simply write them off without a signature.

Veronica have told you twice already.

A: You 've made your point.

B: I have two weeks' vacation left before term starts.

A: We only hire at entry-level for this role.

Airline staff: I am sorry sir, we cannot wait any longer. you must board the plane.

Sunday: The auditors arrive on Tuesday, and the stockroom must be immaculate before they get here.

Key Vocabulary

stockroom	common noun, singular	the room where goods are kept immaculate	Adjective	perfectly clean
write off	phrasal verb	to cancel a debt open night	mic common noun, singular	a slot where anyone may perform

pallet

common
noun,
singular

a platform for stacking goods

Supplementary Vocabulary

ledger

a book of accounts

dread

to fear something

crate

a wooden box for moving goods