

The Office - Stocktaking

(C0108)

A: Morning, Ed. The auditors arrive on Monday, and I want the stockroom immaculate before they get here.

B: I have been dreading this. Half the pallets are still unlabelled and the shutter is jammed.

A: Then get the labels printed today. Move the overflow into the annex before the audit.

B: And the damaged crates? We cannot simply write them off without a signature.

Veronica have told you twice already.

A: You 've made your point.

Key Vocabulary

stockroom

common
noun,
singular

the room where goods are kept

immaculate

Adjective

perfectly clean

write
off

phrasal verb

to cancel a debt

open
night

mic

common
noun,
singular

a slot where anyone
may perform

pallet

common
noun,
singular

a platform for stacking goods

Supplementary Vocabulary

ledger	common noun, singular	a book of accounts dread	verb	to fear something crate	common noun, singular	a wooden box for moving goods